Subject: RE: Waymo v. Uber Meet and Confer Follow-Up

Mr. Cooper and Counsel, I write to memorialize our discussion this afternoon regarding our questions concerning the May 26, 2017 letter to Mr. Levandowski, and to request that Mr. Cooper's question in relation thereto, noted later in this email, be answered by Noon tomorrow.

In relation to the 20 day cure period, we asked what it is that that Uber is asking Mr. Levandowski to "cure" that would result in Mr. Levandowski not being terminated. In response, Defendants stated that Mr. Levandowski is "fired," that he no longer works at Uber. Defendants further stated they do not anticipate he will cure and that they only included the cure provision because it is required in their contract with him. Defendants could not identify anything specific he could do to cure. We pointed out that this appeared inconsistent with the position taken in Mr. Levandowski's Motion to Modify the PI insofar as he pointed to the termination letter and its cure period as a reason to stop enforcement of the PI as it relates to him. Defendants stated that Mr. Levandowski is making his arguments and they do not necessarily agree with them.

We further discussed the statement in the May 26 Letter that:

"Further, in your Employment Agreement, you represented and warranted that "you have returned or destroyed all property and confidential information belonging to any prior employer." Your failure to comply with the Letter gives Uber grounds to allege a breach of the representation and warranty in your employment agreement, and constitutes an additional ground for termination with Cause."

On the call we asked whether "your failure to comply with the Letter" meant that Mr. Levandowski failed to comply because he did not return the Downloaded materials as Uber requested in the Letter, that Uber knew he or Stroz had (supposedly under his control). Defendants wouldn't provide a specific answer as to what this language meant.

However, this prompted the following question by Mr. Cooper: "Does Uber know if Stroz has all or some of the Downloaded materials." We request that Uber (and other defendants) answer this question by noon June 2, or explain the basis for not doing so, including whether answering this question somehow involves privilege, including all information required by the Court's Standing Order to justify an assertion of privilege.

We also discussed the documents requested in Lindsay Cooper's May 30 email. Defendants stated that they will produce, which they hoped to do today, some of the documents we requested. Defendants said they will respond tonight regarding any documents they will not produce.

Subject: RE: Waymo v. Uber Meet and Confer Follow-Up

Andrea and John,

We have not produced the contractual agreement between Mr. Levandowski and Stroz Friedberg because it contains attorney-client privileged and work product information, but we are continuing to analyze this issue, which is closely related to issues before Magistrate Judge Corley.

We have not directed Stroz to do anything with respect to any allegedly downloaded files because Uber does not have control over Mr. Levandowski's personal property, including any property he may have provided to Stroz. Uber cannot compel a third party to produce documents that it does not control. Uber directed Mr. Levandowski to return any downloaded files under his control, which would include any files that Stroz may have. To date, he has not complied and therefore he has been terminated.

In addition to the JDA, work product privilege may apply.

Esther sent the search terms in a separate communication.

Best,
Wendy

- External Email -

John,

I write regarding the items discussed during this afternoon's meet and confer for which Defendants committed to providing responses today, and for which we have not yet received the promised information. To the extent that Defendants do not provide this information tonight as promised, or to the extent issues remain from these responses, let's add these issues on the call tomorrow at 11 am so we can promptly bring these issues to the Court.

- Defendants were supposed to get back to us today to let us know whether Defendants have produced the contractual agreement between Levandowski and Stroz Friedberg that Defendants contended on the call today (as they have previously including in representations to the Court) preclude Uber from instructing Stroz to return any copies of the downloaded materials, and if not, they were to produce the agreement absent a basis not to. And if there was a basis, they would provide it.
- Defendants were to get back to us as to whether they instructed Stroz Friedberg to return all of the downloaded materials pursuant to the PI Order and, if not, the basis for not doing so.

- Defendants were to let us know today whether Defendants are relying on anything other than the original JDA to shield communications between Defendants and Stroz Friedberg regarding responding to the subpoena on Stroz.
- Defendants were to provide us with the list of search terms Defendants agree to run on the emails being made available for inspection. This was to include the approximately 19 that Defendants are already running, and the 160 search terms from the PI phase.

We look forward to receiving this information.

Thanks,
Andrea
